

Illinois Library YA Day Writer's Workshop

Saturday, October 24, 2015

Peoria Civic Center, Peoria, IL

G O T E E N W R I T E R S

Honesty, encouragement, and community for writers

Overview: High school students will enjoy an exciting day filled with many different opportunities.

- Create their own items
- Hear about new books
- Meet with local authors and illustrations
- Meet the famous Daniel Handler, aka Lemony Snickett, during a special Q&A session
- Have the chance to have books signed by the authors and illustrators
- High school students will participate in a writer's workshop
- Awards ceremony recognizing high school writers

Bring: Students attending the Writer's Workshop need 1-2 pieces of work, a writing utensil, paper, and/or your own device. Authors will be working with you on your pieces. You may bring money for purchasing books or bring books from home to be signed.

Cost: $25 (lunch will be provided)

To register for the day, visit: <http://old.ila.org/LibrariesIllinois/ya-day>.